

Services

Post Surgical Rehabilitation

Patients who have joint replacement surgery can have a faster and fuller recovery process when it includes physiotherapy.

We work with your surgeon and physician to ensure a team approach to your recovery.

Our therapy is designed to help you increase your level of activity, strength and range of motion so that you can return to your normally active life as quickly as possible.